For its spring/summer 2018 collection, Casamance has been playing with colour and materials, executing new designs with its trademark French elegance. 'Beauharnais' (shown), £148.70 per m, is made of a blend of linen and cotton and has been embroidered with majestic tropical birds in joyful contrasting hues, becoming a sensory celebration of different textures and palettes. The company will be exhibiting its new collection at Paris Découvertes (18-22 Jan) and in its Paris, London and Brussels showrooms. Also shown: 'Rose' silk trim, £38.30 per m. Both prices include VAT. For more information, ring 0844 369 0104, or visit casamance.com.
